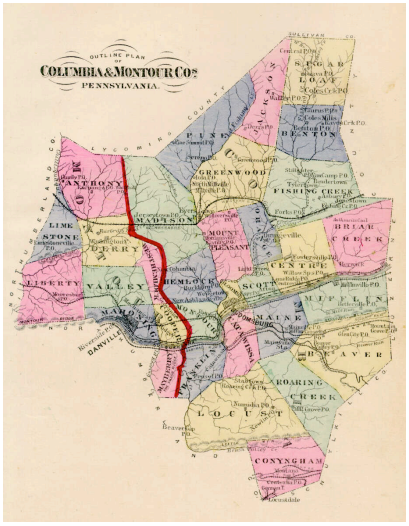
Montour County is Pennsylvainia's smallest in area size county, however it along with Columbia County that borders it are full of activities for a day trip. Back in August 2022, I wrote an article on the Covered Bridge Tour of these 2 counties. This month, I will take you on an antiquing tour in them.



I will start with going out Interstate 80 for about 1 hour to Danville, PA where you can visit Rising Sun Antiques. It is located at 216 Mill Street. They have a general line of quality antiques in a 19th century setting. They are open Monday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday 10-5:30 and Sundays 1:00 - 5:00. . Phone is 570-275-1776. Pictures can be found on a Facebook page.

From Danville you can drive 16 minutes to Catawissa, where you will find Timeless Designs - Renewed, Rekindled, Reloved at 400 East Main Street. Phone 570-336-5578. They are open Friday, Saturday 11:00 - 5:00 and Sunday 11:00 - 4:00. They have unique, one of a kind, re-kindled furniture and decor. Their saying is "we don't just repaint furniture, we reinvent." They sell from several vendors, not just their own items. Pictures of items can be found on their facebook page.

From Catawissa, you can drive north to Benton where you will find 2 shops. The first is Ol' Country Barn at 9 South Comstock Road in Benton. Phone 570-925-6295. This place is packed with cool stuff, both old and new. You will find crafts, antiques, and collectibles. As an extra treat, you can also visit Kulpmont Winery's tasing room there. The Ol' Country Barn is open from April until December on Saturdays from 10:00 - 5:00 and Sundays from noon -5:00. They hold a Pumpkin Festival in October that has free parking, free admission, free hayrides, and free entertainment with door prizes and food.

Benton Antiques at 235 Main Street is another place to visit with 2 floors of beautiful and eclectic antiques. They are open Thursday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday from 10:00 - 5:00. This is also one that has several vendors at the store. Pictures of items can be found on their facebook page.

Travel back south on Rt 487 to 487 Rustics in Orangeville at 1549 State Route 487. Phone 570-784-0487. They are open Thursday and Friday 11:00 - 4:00, Saturday 10:00 - 6:00, and Sunday 10:00 - 4:00. They have antiques, primitives, hand-crafted industrial & barn-wood furniture along with hand-poured candles and melts, also farmhouse decorations. You will also find Magic 5 Wine and Tasting Room there.

The last place is European Antiques & Collectibles at 745 Miff-Main Road. Some references have it as Nescopeak and others as Bloomsburg. Phone 570-441-3211. They are only open on Saturdays 10:00 - 5:00. They have European - German antiques, primitives, cabinets, sleds, blue salt pottery, graniteware, etc.

So enjoy yourself on one of these winter days traveling and supporting small business owned places with interesting items for sale.
